VACCINATION AGAINST SMALLPOX

DR. HARRISON BRINGS OUT THE FIGURES CONCLUSIVE.

Shows That an Unvaccinated Person is About 1,000 Times as Liable as One Vaccinated.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

I fear that the people of Greensboro are heartily tired of reading or hearing anything which pertains to smallpox or vaccination, but I am sure I will be pardoned for giving a short statistical report of the eighty (80) cases which have come under my care since I have been here.

I do this for two purposes: To prove that we have had smallpox, and to show that vaccination will prevent it. The eighty cases referred to, I have divided into five groups with reference to vaccination.

Group 1—Number of patients successfully vaccinated within the last seven years, 2, or 2 1/2 per cent.

Group 2—Number of patients successfully vaccinated, but not vaccinated at all for seven years or more, 33 1/2 per cent.

Group 3—Number of patients vaccinated, but who had never had it to take, 18, or 22 1/2 per cent.

Group 4—Number of patients vaccinated after infection had taken place, 24 or 30 per cent.

Group 5—Number of patients who had never been vaccinated at all, 33, or 41 1/2 per cent.

Total number of patients, 50 per cent. 100. Some of the above groups possibly require a few words of explanation.

Groups 1 and 2. With one exception there were cases of mild varioloid. This exception was a typical case.

Group 3: Here we notice quite a large percentage. This has been due to several causes:

(1). From 3 to 5 per cent of primary vaccination will fail to take effect, the vaccination has been carefully performed and not tampered with afterward.

(2). Several of the patients acknowledged that they had prevented "taking" by the use of soap and water, turpentine, alcohol, etc., and it is natural to suppose that others did the same.

(3). The small number of unvaccinated people in Greensboro, of course, raises this percentage, for those who have had no "take" are as unprotected as the unvaccinated.

Group 4: This is even larger than the preceding, but the explanation of this is easy. Whenever a case has been found all those who were exposed were immediately vaccinated, but as the cases were never found until the disease had been present for five or six days, vaccination was performed after infection had taken place.

In these cases the vaccination usually "took" along with the smallpox, the disease generally being modified.

I am told that a conservative estimate would put Greensboro's population at 15,000.

I can, with equal conservatism, state that 95 per cent of this population has been successfully vaccinated within the last seven years.

Let us suppose that we have all been exposed to smallpox. Now, if we will allow ourselves to wander back to the days when we practiced our youthful bravado over the intricacies of "White's" or "Robinson's" arithmetic, we can certainly appreciate the following figures: Of the 15,000 people here, 4 per cent, or 600 of these have not been vaccinated successfully within the last seven years.

Of the 15,000, 75, or 13 per cent, (about 2 in every 15) contracted smallpox. Of the same 15,000, 96 per cent, or 14,400, have been successfully vaccinated and 2, or 1-1/2 per cent, (2 in every 14,400) contracted the disease.

This looks very much as if an unvaccinated person is about 1,000 times as liable to the disease as one not vaccinated. This makes a better showing than government statistics, but this has been a mild epidemic and Greensboro has a reputation for luck. Are these figures merely a coincidence? If one believes in vaccination he must believe that this disease is smallpox. If he does not believe in vaccination—poor fellow, his case is hopeless.

I could cite case after case where every member of a family would be attacked save those who have a vaccination card of recent date. I can't cite a single case where any member of an infected family except those bearing scars escaped.

Why say that the pus from a pustule in a typical case inserted into my own arm gave rise to no symptom of smallpox? Was it vaccination?

SERVICES OF THE SABBATH.

WHAT OCCURRED IN THE VARIOUS CHURCHES.

A Short Mention of the Sermons, Music, and the Congregations of Yesterday.

Yesterday being the first Sunday in the Presbyterian church year, the services at the First church in the morning was especially appropriate to the occasion.

At eight Dr. Smith preached his last sermon on the "Creed of Christ," the subject being what Christ believed in regard to the Scriptures. This was probably the most scholarly and instructive sermon of the series. He made no quarrel with the higher criticism but thought them necessary to the proper study of the Bible. He said there was only a small class of the higher critics, the radical class, the "left wing" as it were, who tried to destroy men's belief in the Scriptures. He recorded as his deliberate conviction that the world was on the verge of the greatest era of the history of the world, and gave two reasons in passing, for his belief, one was the breaking down of many of the strongest enemies of the Bible by reason of the light thrown by explorations in Bible lands, and the other was the wonderful concentration of the world's thought on the personality and word of Christ, as evidenced by the fact that more books and monographs and magazine articles are being written about him than ever before.

Dr. F. H. Wood preached yesterday morning at the Methodist church, his being the preaching service of the second quarterly conference. He chose as his text the fifteenth and sixteenth verses of the last chapter of St. Mark. In speaking of the first part of his text he quoted: "Here is where we get our authority to preach the gospel. If a man asks me where I get my authority to preach, I tell him it is here. The call to preach is not only in Greensboro or Guilford county or the commonwealth of North Carolina, but everywhere. Wherever you find a sinner tell him that he may be saved. That Christ died for him." In speaking of the call he said, "Brother, if God calls you to go into the foreign field to preach the gospel, you go. But don't you let anybody persuade you that God has called you."

The offertory was well rendered, being a duet by Misses Moselle Andrews and Helen Wheeler.

The night service was conducted by Rev. Gilbert Rowe, the son of the pastor.

At Grace Methodist P. testant church, Rev. W. F. Kennet, president of the North Carolina conference, preached yesterday morning. The following officers of the Sunday school were elected: J. Norman Wills, superintendent; J. E. H. Hadden, assistant superintendent; W. F. Kennet, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. J. S. McCulloch, librarian. Mr. J. S. Hunter, who has been superintendent for the past two years, found that it would be impracticable for him to continue in that capacity on account of business engagements requiring his absence from the city to a great extent during this year. His services have been valuable during his term of office, and it was with regret that the school complied with his request to be released.

Two packed houses greeted Mr. Wildman yesterday. The morning service was very impressive and tender. The sermon was a rich feast to Christian people; faithfulness was the subject and Christian people were urged to be faithful to their Master. In all matters of a questionable character to "give God the benefit of the doubt." The observance of the Lord's supper followed the sermon. Dr. Hume of the University was present and took part in the service. At night the crowd was so large that chairs had to be placed in the aisle to do not believe in vaccination—poor fellow, his case is hopeless.

I could cite case after case where every member of a family would be attacked save those who have a vaccination card of recent date. I can't cite a single case where any member of an infected family except those bearing scars escaped.

COMING GAME IN GREENSBORO.

OAK RIDGE AND THE UNIVERSITY WILL MAKE A BATTLE ROYAL.

Horner and Oak Ridge Meet Wednesday—The Whitest Drubbing—Boston Might Get Some Men to Fill in With.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Oak Ridge, March 31—Oak Ridge Institute took Whitest Institute into camp in great shape this afternoon.

Winning by the one-sided score of 25 to 3. The Oak Ridge team simply outclassed the Whitest boys and the game was uninteresting from the beginning set and took their drubbing good naturedly. Whitest got but two hits off of the Oak Ridge pitching staff.

The feature of the game was the hitting of Carter and Howard. Carter got five singles, while Howard got one single, a two-bagger, a triple, and a home run.

Horner School plays here Wednesday and great game is expected. Horner has a crack team, having Kenna to pitch and Oldham as catcher, besides having import D. Glavin and Warren from Washington City to strengthen the team. This with other aid makes the team one of the crack-jacks players and they are coming to win.

Bob Stafford, who has been caught up by the team, will play with Oak Ridge to offset Glavin and Warren and it will be a battle of giants sure enough. Oak Ridge will not play Stafford against any other team, and will withdraw. Oak Ridge has made this proposition to Horner. We are not kicking about it; we are ready to play either way and in any event it will be a great game. Lucian Smith will umpire the game as he did the one today.

After the game Wednesday, all eyes will be turned to the game at Greensboro Saturday, April 14, between Oak Ridge and Carolina. The "var" boys say Oak Ridge will never win again this year, while Oak Ridge is confident of repeating her victory.

With Lawson in the box for University it will be a battle royal. By the way, if the manager of the Boston team would do well to drive out next Wednesday and see Oak Ridge's aggregation play the game. It is not a bad thing for the team, which to recruit its team along about the summer solstice.

OPENING OF HOTEL GUILFORD.

The Doors of This Elegant Hostelry Have Opened to the Public.

On last Saturday night Mr. Howell Cobb, proprietor of Hotel Guilford, the old Benbow, opened its doors to the public.

Few people realize the work that has been going on in what is now the Hotel Guilford. Any passerby could see the blackened and unsightly walls and charred timbers of the old Benbow gradually but surely changing to a handsome and imposing four-story building, but gave little thought to the work of transformation going on within. Under the supervision of Messrs. B. H. Merriman, the owner, and Howell Cobb, the proprietor, the change that has been wrought is a marvel.

A complete renovation has been made, the house being carpeted, papered and painted from top to bottom. In the corridors and rooms are elegant Wilton carpets and axminster carpets. On the first and second "sleeping porches" have been erected with private baths and lavatories, the plumbing of which is the best.

The furniture is of highly polished royal oak. The mattresses are made of royal felt resting on easy springs and the tired traveler who lays himself down to slumber upon these downy couches had better leave strict orders to be aroused. The presiding genius of the culinary department is Herr Otto Dietrich, formerly of Leipzig, Germany, and recently of Baltimore. Chief Dietrich realizes the importance of his department as a factor in the comfort of the guests and the up-to-date appliances and cleanliness of the kitchen attest this fact. The ceiling of the dining room is hand painted, and in each corner is the coat of arms of the House of Guilford.

There are larger hotels but there are none that provide for the guests more or greater comfort than will the Hotel Guilford.

BOERS HARRASS THE BRITISH.

GENERAL BROADWOOD IS ATTACKED AND LOSES THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY.

While Crossing a Drift They Were Ambushed and Artillery Horse Were Shot at Short Range.

London, April 2—Roberts' despatch yesterday says that "Broadwood was today that the ninth division with Martys mounted infantry would march at daylight to support him, that if he considered it necessary he should retire from the waterworks, having moved there during night and bivouacked. At dawn today, the enemy attacked on three sides. In retreating he crossed a deep nullah in which the Boers had concealed themselves and while passing the drift the Boers fired. They shot down artillery horses at short range and several men were captured. The remainder galloped away, and were covered by Roberts' horse which suffered heavily. Broadwood estimates his loss at three hundred and fifty, including two hundred missing. Hearing that Broadwood was hard pressed I immediately despatched General French with the two remaining cavalry brigades to follow in support of the ninth division. The strength of the enemy is estimated to be ten thousand."

It is believed from Roberts' despatch that a big engagement is in progress.

CORNELL TEAM HERE LAST NIGHT.

They Play University Today - The Men Highly Pleased With Their Southern Trip.

Cornell's ball team came in on the vestibule last night, spending the night at Hotel Guilford and leaving on the early train for Chapel Hill, where they will play the University this afternoon. From there they will go to Durham, playing Trinity College tomorrow evening, then for Charlottesville, Va., to play the Virginians on Thursday. They have been playing for the past week in Georgia, having played three games in successful at Atlanta.
They report having lost the first game played, but since that they say they have had good luck.

Mr. W. T. Wright, of Sioux City, the manager, when seen by the reporter, expressed himself as being much pleased with the southern trip. Said he:
"I can't see why more of our northern universities do not go as far south as Georgia. It is a fine trip, pays expenses and there is no better place to play ball." He spoke favorably of our new hotel, being much pleased with its appearance and service. He regretted being unable to play a game with the Boston team, which is here for practice. There were eighteen in the party and were all fine looking specimens of college athletes.

When asked about the probable strength of the League teams in the coming season Mr. Wright said he saw no reason why Brooklyn should not be in the front.

Henry Harris, colored, attempted to cross in front of an engine this morn-senseless. He was carried to the embankment and the company's surgeon, Dr. Brodnax, was summoned, and he was later taken to his home on Chestnut street. He was working on CIVILIZATION SHALL GOVERN.

MAJ. LONDON'S SPEECH ON THE AMENDMENT.

A Clear, Logical and Impassioned Presentation of the Question—The Only Issue This Year.

Saturday night was an off night with Major Henry A. London, he having spoken that day in Winston on the constitutional amendment, and notwithstanding the fact that our writing population do their trading that night and the business men had to remain in their stores until a late hour, there was a fair sized crowd to hear him speak. He was introduced by Solicitor Brooks in a few brief, but ringing words.

Major London was greeted with applause as he rose. After making a few appropriate preliminary remarks, in which he highly complimented Green-boro upon the rapid growth and development of recent years, he went at once into clear, forceful and eloquent, but impassioned discussion of the question which is the only issue in the campaign upon which we are about entering. He said in part:

"The whole situation is embraced in the single question: Can North Carolina be governed better with or without the ignorant negro vote? There should be no hesitation on the part of any man, with pure white blood in his veins, in answering that question.
The history of recent years has recorded the fact that three-fourths of the white people have been controlled by one-fourth, in voting with the sold-mass of negroes, voting as a machine.
Out of all the southern states, North Carolina is the only one in which the negro is a disturbing element in politics, notwithstanding the fact that we have a majority of white men and some states have a majority of negroes.

When the two old parties, the whigs and democrats, were opposing each other, no matter which side won, the other side knew the country was safe because both sides were white men.
The democrats favor the amendment, the republicans—most of them—oppose it. The populists are not placed anywhere yet. Perhaps their bosses are undecided."

Major London here told how the negroes came to be enfranchised, and why they were given the voting power.
"They were as unskilled," said he, "as ex-slaves, who were taken from the wilds of Africa. They were the lineal descendants of men who had been slaves since they were taken from the jungle. The power which enfranchised them, disfranchised 20,000 of the best white men of North Carolina, and they were made to stand by while their former slaves exercised the rights of which they were deprived. The returns were sent to Charleston, S. C., and counted by a military officer.
They voted for three days, taking the boxes home at night, so they could see how many more votes to put in the next day. The manner in which the thing was done does not commend it to us. We submitted, but we cannot forget nor forgive those wrongs."

The people of North Carolina took care of the negro, educated him, provided him schools and asylums, without an iota of discrimination. Notwithstanding this kind and generosity the negroes have always voted in one solid block mass against the men who were their friends. I don't know how it was here, but in other counties the negroes have always been led by the meanest man in the township."

Here followed a recital of the organization of the people's party, and how don here lucidly explained the grandfather clause, and clearly proved the Bad for Liverymen.

Yesterday was a bad day for the livery stock. Mr. C. P. Vanstort hired a horse to a man named Frank O borne. This man is charged with cruelly overdriving the horse. J. E.
McMillen is charged with like treatment of a horse belonging to Tatum & Taylor. Wheeler Bros. had one hired to a man who overruled and smashed the buggy. After breaking the buggy one of the men attempted to ride the horse back to the stable—but he was too top heavy.

Greensboro Water Supply Co in Hands of Receiver.

Mr. A. L. Brooks attorney for plaintiff in the case of Greenboro vs Greensboro water supply Co., obtained from Judge Moore in Durham Saturday, last, an order putting the Greensboro Water company into the hands of a temporary receiver, alleging as grounds therefor, that Miss Correll had recovered judgment against them for $5,000, and they refuse to pay same or give bond to stay execution, and the water company is insolvent. The court appointed the Southern Loan and Trust Co. receiver.
The defendant has been notified to appear in Durham April 25, before Judge Moore, and show causes if they can, why the receivership should not be made perpetual.

no white man, under this amendment, could be deprived of the right of suffrage. The supreme court of the United States has decided a parallel case from Mississippi, and it was not proven unconstitutional. It discriminate, not against the negro, but against his characteristics. Senator Frischard, who is the leader of the opposition, was asked why the date, Jan.
1, 1867, was put in what is called the "grandfather clause," and Frischard answered: "To protect the illiterate white men." This was an unreasonable admission that no white man would be disfranchised. The same law is in force in Louisiana, and no case has been gotten up to test its constitution-ality. Will the republicans test it in this state? If they do, and succeed in declaring it unconstitutional, who, then, will disfranchise white people?
The democrats will certainly not do this as a majority of the illiterate whites belong to the democratic party.

After the ignorant voter is eliminated the intelligent negroes, who can vote, will do here as they do in Louisiana, vote with respectable people.

If the republicans thought the amendment would disfranchise the illiterate whites they would all vote for it, as that class nearly all belong to the democratic party. The difference is the difference between the ignorant party and the intelligent party. "They made it possible, aye, they changed town charters so that Wilmington, Newbern, Greenville, and other places were placed under the control of negroes and white men who were meaner than negroes. In 1898 it was determined to restore white supremacy.
Now it is determined that white su-premacny shall be made permanent by ridging the state of the ignorant negro vote. The only argument heard against it is that it will disfranchise the illiterate white men." Major London is the democrats say stop the ignorant negro voters and let the illiterates, and the republicans want to stop the illiterate whites and let the ignorant negroes vote. The illiterate white man is far superior to the negro by reason of years of civilization.

The opponents a most shed wars over the poll tax feature, and say what a shame it will be to bar the poor old confederate soldier in that way! They ought to know better. There is not a confederate soldier in the state who is required to pay poll tax. Only able bodied men between 21 and 50 years have to pay poll tax. There is not an old soldier under 50. This is one of the best features of the amendment. It will still admit education, and every man ought to favor that. Is it right, after you have paid taxes to educate a black negro's children, to have him come along and vote without paying any tax at all?

No danger of negro domination, they say. We know by painful experience that there is danger, and we must prevent it. George H. White, the only negro congressman, but that "we hold offices, but we don't hold as many as we will," and white men applauded him. He was feeling big then. That was before the election of 1898. If they had not been headed off they would have had North Carolina now run over.

Every man must do his duty. The banners should have the words emblazoned on them: "North Carolina expects every man to do his duty."
The scene next August was pictured.
A long line of white men, behind whom will be the mothers, wives sisters and daughters, looking to them for protection; on the banner will be written "White Supremacy."

The other column will be as black as midnight with an occasional white face of a man who has forgotten that his mother was a white woman, or one who is honest, but misguided, and on the banner will be written, "Negro Domination."

The Boston Herald.

Frank G. Selig, the genial manager, who held that position two years ago, is still with the team. The following is a list of the men here: Dienesen, Pittiger, Bally, Tenny, Collins, Stahl, Hamilton, Freeman, Barry, Nichols and Chambers.

The Boston Herald is represented by Mr. J. C. Morse; the Journal and Globe by W. S. Barnes, Jr., and T.
H. Moran, respectively, who accompany the team on their southern tour.
The team will probably play Oak Ridge, the University, and possibly other games during the ten days they will stay here. Chambers is from near Asheville, and at one time pitched on the Trinity College team.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees as we can get." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick and don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been too low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
